

Search for Certainty

“Good God, Bad World, Why?”

Lesson # 7 of 30

Let's check our understanding...

1. Satan: (Check all that apply) (#1-7)
 - was once a glorious angel in heaven
 - was the first creature to rebel against God
 - was the leader of a rebellion in heaven
 - creates lies about God's true character
2. Where did these originate? (Draw a line) (6-8)

War	Heaven
Deception
Sin
Devil	Earth
3. When the Devil was forced to leave heaven, he was able to move his rebellion to planet earth because Adam, as head of the human family, consciously chose to disobey God and obey the Devil. (#9)
 - True
 - False
4. We – all human beings...(check all that apply) (#9-note)
 - are sinners by birth
 - are sinners by choice
 - are loved by God
 - are redeemed from the curse of Adam's sin
5. Why is there war, suffering, heartache, sickness, disease, misery, and death in this world?
 - this is a planet experiencing the results of rebellion against God
 - God delights in watching people suffer
6. God's solution to the sin problem: (check all that apply) (#11-13)
 - sent His Son to die for all humanity
 - limits Satan's ability to tempt and harass people
 - uses the reality of evil to awaken sinners
 - uses the reality of evil to clarify God's true character

What do you think...

Why doesn't an all-powerful, all-wise, all-loving God stop the suffering?

I accept Jesus as my Savior and surrender my life to Him. I desire Him to rule in the kingdom of my heart. I choose to trust God and ask Jesus to be the Master of my daily life.

Search for Certainty

“Good God, Bad World, Why?”

Lesson # 7 of 30

Let's check our understanding...

1. Satan: (Check all that apply) (#1-7)
 - was once a glorious angel in heaven
 - was the first creature to rebel against God
 - was the leader of a rebellion in heaven
 - creates lies about God's true character
2. Where did these originate? (Draw a line) (6-8)

War	Heaven
Deception
Sin
Devil	Earth
3. When the Devil was forced to leave heaven, he was able to move his rebellion to planet earth because Adam, as head of the human family, consciously chose to disobey God and obey the Devil. (#9)
 - True
 - False
4. We – all human beings...(check all that apply) (#9-note)
 - are sinners by birth
 - are sinners by choice
 - are loved by God
 - are redeemed from the curse of Adam's sin
5. Why is there war, suffering, heartache, sickness, disease, misery, and death in this world?
 - this is a planet experiencing the results of rebellion against God
 - God delights in watching people suffer
6. God's solution to the sin problem: (check all that apply) (#11-13)
 - sent His Son to die for all humanity
 - limits Satan's ability to tempt and harass people
 - uses the reality of evil to awaken sinners
 - uses the reality of evil to clarify God's true character

What do you think...

Why doesn't an all-powerful, all-wise, all-loving God stop the suffering?

I accept Jesus as my Savior and surrender my life to Him. I desire Him to rule in the kingdom of my heart. I choose to trust God and ask Jesus to be the Master of my daily life.