

Search for Certainty

“Modern Cults”

Lesson # 14 of 30

Let's check our understanding...

1. In the last days we won't be bothered by deception.
 True False
2. God's true followers will need to know the truth about God as revealed in the Bible.
 True False
3. Cults can be identified because: (check all that apply)
 they usually have a single, powerful human leader
 teachings of the cult and leader become more important than the Bible
 they use pressure tactics to force submission
 they often appeal to miracles as a proof of their divine origin
 they often urge “converts” to leave their families and friends
4. The only standard by which we can evaluate truth is:
 the Bible the traditions of men miracles
5. In the last days many will be deceived because:
 they are convinced with the miraculous
 they refuse to learn to love God's truth
 they refuse the attraction of God's love
 they reject the tugging power of God's Holy Spirit
 they chose to NOT worship their Creator
6. Those who accept Christ as their Savior:
 are forgiven are accepted by God
 become members of God's family
 are being transformed to be more like Jesus
 are learning to live by faith, not by sight
7. God's last-day message is a call to every person to give our undivided allegiance to our loving Creator.
 True False

What do you think...

Why does God allow false miracles and deception to flourish in the last days? _____

Dear Lord, I commit myself to do Your will. Looking to Jesus as my personal Savior, I choose to follow Your truth and obey Your Word.

Search for Certainty

“Modern Cults”

Lesson # 14 of 30

Let's check our understanding...

1. In the last days we won't be bothered by deception.
 True False
2. God's true followers will need to know the truth about God as revealed in the Bible.
 True False
3. Cults can be identified because: (check all that apply)
 they usually have a single, powerful human leader
 teachings of the cult and leader become more important than the Bible
 they use pressure tactics to force submission
 they often appeal to miracles as a proof of their divine origin
 they often urge “converts” to leave their families and friends
4. The only standard by which we can evaluate truth is:
 the Bible the traditions of men miracles
5. In the last days many will be deceived because:
 they are convinced with the miraculous
 they refuse to learn to love God's truth
 they refuse the attraction of God's love
 they reject the tugging power of God's Holy Spirit
 they chose to NOT worship their Creator
6. Those who accept Christ as their Savior:
 are forgiven are accepted by God
 become members of God's family
 are being transformed to be more like Jesus
 are learning to live by faith, not by sight
7. God's last-day message is a call to every person to give our undivided allegiance to our loving Creator.
 True False

What do you think...

Why does God allow false miracles and deception to flourish in the last days? _____

Dear Lord, I commit myself to do Your will. Looking to Jesus as my personal Savior, I choose to follow Your truth and obey Your Word.