

Search for Certainty

“God’s Love in Hell”

Lesson # 17 of 30

1. God: (check all that apply) delights in tormenting sinners forever
 does NOT enjoy the death of anyone is a consuming fire
 will destroy sin and unrepentant sinners
 is concerned that people understand His true character
2. Hell is: (check all that apply)
 a hot spot burning right now in the center of the earth
 an unquenchable fire that completely destroys any trace of sin
 the final fate of all the enemies of God
 just a horrible threat – it will NEVER happen
3. In Hebrew thought, the terms “eternal” and “forever and ever”:
 refer to endless existence
 apply only to the end of the person, place, or thing referred to
4. Sodom and Gomorrah were examples of those who will suffer God’s eternal fire. They are:
 still burning completely destroyed – no trace
5. What happens to the wicked who experience the fires of hell?
 they keep suffering for millions of years
 they are consumed and never exist again
6. God’s final destruction of the wicked:
 is His “strange” act
 is NOT the result of His anger, but of the sinner’s rebellion is His last act of love for them completely devours them forever
7. God is allowing sin to run it’s course and will finally destroy sin and any who choose to cling to rebellion against Him in such a way that sin and rebellion will NEVER arise again.
 True False

Why does God take so long to destroy sin and those who are hardened in rebellion against Him? _____

I choose to place my life in the hands of my loving Creator. It is clear to me that sin destroys, and I long to be delivered from hell’s complete destruction by my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Search for Certainty

“God’s Love in Hell”

Lesson # 17 of 30

1. God: (check all that apply)
 delights in tormenting sinners forever
 does NOT enjoy the death of anyone
 is a consuming fire
 will destroy sin and unrepentant sinners
 is concerned that people understand His true character
2. Hell is: (check all that apply)
 a hot spot burning right now in the center of the earth
 an unquenchable fire that completely destroys any trace of sin
 the final fate of all the enemies of God
 just a horrible threat – it will NEVER happen
3. In Hebrew thought, the terms “eternal” and “forever and ever”:
 refer to endless existence
 apply only to the end of the person, place, or thing referred to
4. Sodom and Gomorrah were examples of those who will suffer God’s eternal fire. They are:
 still burning completely destroyed – no trace
5. What happens to the wicked who experience the fires of hell?
 they keep suffering for millions of years
 they are consumed and never exist again
6. God’s final destruction of the wicked:
 is His “strange” act
 is NOT the result of His anger, but of the sinner’s rebellion
 is His last act of love for them
 completely devours them forever
7. God is allowing sin to run it’s course and will finally destroy sin and any who choose to cling to rebellion against Him in such a way that sin and rebellion will NEVER arise again.
 True False

Why does God take so long to destroy sin and those who are hardened in rebellion against Him? _____

I choose to place my life in the hands of my loving Creator. It is clear to me that sin destroys, and I long to be delivered from hell’s complete destruction by my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.