

Search for Certainty

“Prophets and Prophecy”

Lesson # 22 of 30

Let’s check our understanding...

1. Jesus warned that false Christs and false prophets would try to deceive people who want to follow God and His truth.
 True False
2. The gifts of the Holy Spirit – including prophecy – are intended to help God’s people (Ephesians 4.12-13):
 Reach unity Stay away from sinners
 Become more like Jesus in character
 Become snobbish in their knowledge of truth
3. Who – or what – will be the focus of God’s true prophets?
 Last day events Secrets of the spirit world
 The future Jesus
4. The Bible gives several tests of a true prophet from God (check all that apply)
 True prophets exalt Jesus – He is the focus of their ministry
 True prophets exalt all of God’s Word
 True prophets reveal Christlike fruit in their own private life and in the lives of those who follow their teachings
 True prophets make adjustments to the Bible
 True prophets rarely reveal future events accurately
5. In the last days, just before Jesus comes, when all nature is coming apart, and the deceptions of Satan are rampant, God provides the genuine gift of prophecy to:
 keep God’s true followers on the right path
 protect us from deception
 help us know Jesus better and love Him more prepare God’s people for works of service
 prepare God’s people to meet God face to face

What do you think...

How will God’s true followers relate to the genuine gift of prophecy for these last days? (See 1 Thessalonians 5.19-21)

Thank You, dear Jesus, for the gift of prophecy. I choose to cherish its counsels and humbly follow Your will.

Search for Certainty

“Prophets and Prophecy”

Lesson # 22 of 30

Let’s check our understanding...

1. Jesus warned that false Christs and false prophets would try to deceive people who want to follow God and His truth.
 True False
2. The gifts of the Holy Spirit – including prophecy – are intended to help God’s people (Ephesians 4.12-13):
 Reach unity Stay away from sinners
 Become more like Jesus in character
 Become snobbish in their knowledge of truth
3. Who – or what – will be the focus of God’s true prophets?
 Last day events Secrets of the spirit world
 The future Jesus
4. The Bible gives several tests of a true prophet from God (check all that apply)
 True prophets exalt Jesus – He is the focus of their ministry
 True prophets exalt all of God’s Word
 True prophets reveal Christlike fruit in their own private life and in the lives of those who follow their teachings
 True prophets make adjustments to the Bible
 True prophets rarely reveal future events accurately
5. In the last days, just before Jesus comes, when all nature is coming apart, and the deceptions of Satan are rampant, God provides the genuine gift of prophecy to:
 keep God’s true followers on the right path
 protect us from deception
 help us know Jesus better and love Him more
 prepare God’s people for works of service
 prepare God’s people to meet God face to face

What do you think...

How will God’s true followers relate to the genuine gift of prophecy for these last days? (See 1 Thessalonians 5.19-21)

Thank You, dear Jesus, for the gift of prophecy. I choose to cherish its counsels and humbly follow Your will.