

Search for Certainty

“The Unpardonable Sin and the Holy Spirit”

Lesson # 24 of 30

1. The unpardonable sin is NOT a specific sin, but a degree of sin.
 True False
2. The unpardonable sin is:
 a refusal to accept the leading of God in your life closing your mind to the influence of the Holy Spirit a state of open rebellion that ignores, resists, and finally rejects the promptings of the Holy Spirit a state in which the promptings of the of the Holy Spirit are no longer perceived 3. The Bible describes the Holy Spirit as:
 a divine Comforter an impersonal force, like electricity
4. The primary work of the Holy Spirit is to:
 confront us with our sin confront us with our need of a Savior confront us with judgment: a sense of divine wrath if we reject God’s mercy and grace give us a heart that loves God and desires to obey God
5. The Holy Spirit gives to every believer in Jesus a new heart that loves God a desire to obey God’s will new power to die to sin and selfishness, and live for God
6. The Holy Spirit
 draws us to Jesus opens our mind and heart to truth give us power to obey the truth is given more fully when we obey the light we have 7. The Holy Spirit invites us to:
 daily give ourselves totally to God come to God with all our guilt, weakness, fears, and doubt accept His comforting presence which gives us power for a fresh new start in life every day

Why do we need the Holy Spirit? _____

Dear Lord, I choose to open my heart to You right now and come to You asking for the power of the Holy Spirit to lead me into the life You desire me to live.

Search for Certainty

“The Unpardonable Sin and the Holy Spirit”

Lesson # 24 of 30

1. The unpardonable sin is NOT a specific sin, but a degree of sin.
 True False
2. The unpardonable sin is:
 a refusal to accept the leading of God in your life
 closing your mind to the influence of the Holy Spirit
 a state of open rebellion that ignores, resists, and finally rejects the promptings of the Holy Spirit
 a state in which the promptings of the of the Holy Spirit are no longer perceived 3. The Bible describes the Holy Spirit as:
 a divine Comforter an impersonal force, like electricity
4. The primary work of the Holy Spirit is to:
 confront us with our sin
 confront us with our need of a Savior
 confront us with judgment: a sense of divine wrath if we reject God’s mercy and grace
 give us a heart that loves God and desires to obey God
5. The Holy Spirit gives to every believer in Jesus a new heart that loves God a desire to obey God’s will
 new power to die to sin and selfishness, and live for God
6. The Holy Spirit
 draws us to Jesus opens our mind and heart to truth
 give us power to obey the truth is given more fully when we obey the light we have
7. The Holy Spirit invites us to:
 daily give ourselves totally to God
 come to God with all our guilt, weakness, fears, and doubt
 accept His comforting presence which gives us power for a fresh new start in life every day

Why do we need the Holy Spirit? _____

Dear Lord, I choose to open my heart to You right now and come to You asking for the power of the Holy Spirit to lead me into the life You desire me to live.