

Search for Certainty

“From Disappoint to Triumph”

Lesson # 25 of 30

1. The 2,300 day/year prophecy of Daniel 8:14 refers to the opening of the judgment in the heavenly sanctuary that began in what year?
 1914 1948 1844 1861
2. According to Revelation, chapter 10, the study of the “little book” (Daniel) would lead to a bittersweet experience. Why?
 Believers were expecting Jesus to return in 1844.
 Believers wrongly thought the sanctuary was referring to this earth, when in reality it was referring to the sanctuary in heaven being cleansed.
 Believers didn’t understand that Jesus had a work of judgment to do – before He returns to this earth.
3. When the temple in heaven was opened to John in vision (Rev 11.19) he saw the Ark of the Covenant which contained:
 a jar of angel hair the Ten Commandments
 a box of figs from the Promised Land
(The Ark of the Covenant was seen only by the high priest one time every year – on the Day of Atonement, a day of judgment and vindication for the people of God).
4. Just before Jesus comes in the clouds of glory, there will be a prophetic movement on this earth that will prepare the world for Jesus’ soon return by...
 telling every nation, tribe, and person about His coming.
 pointing everyone to the truth about God.
 challenging the inhabitants of the world to live in harmony with all of God’s holy Law.
 calling everyone to give glory to God by loving each other, loving God, and living obediently to God’s will.

Why would God allow His followers to experience discouragement, then give them another mission – tell the world I’m coming soon?

- I believe that Jesus has raised up a movement in the last days of earth’s history to lead men and women to Christ, to prepare them for His coming, and to lead them to obedience to His holy law.
 I want to be part of God’s last-day movement to tell the world.

Search for Certainty

“From Disappoint to Triumph”

Lesson # 25 of 30

1. The 2,300 day/year prophecy of Daniel 8:14 refers to the opening of the judgment in the heavenly sanctuary that began in what year?
 1914 1948 1844 1861
2. According to Revelation, chapter 10, the study of the “little book” (Daniel) would lead to a bittersweet experience. Why?
 Believers were expecting Jesus to return in 1844.
 Believers wrongly thought the sanctuary was referring to this earth, when in reality it was referring to the sanctuary in heaven being cleansed.
 Believers didn’t understand that Jesus had a work of judgment to do – before He returns to this earth.
3. When the temple in heaven was opened to John in vision (Rev 11.19) he saw the Ark of the Covenant which contained:
 a jar of angel hair the Ten Commandments
 a box of figs from the Promised Land
(The Ark of the Covenant was seen only by the high priest one time every year – on the Day of Atonement, a day of judgment and vindication for the people of God).
4. Just before Jesus comes in the clouds of glory, there will be a prophetic movement on this earth that will prepare the world for Jesus’ soon return by...
 telling every nation, tribe, and person about His coming.
 pointing everyone to the truth about God.
 challenging the inhabitants of the world to live in harmony with all of God’s holy Law.
 calling everyone to give glory to God by loving each other, loving God, and living obediently to God’s will.

Why would God allow His followers to experience discouragement, then give them another mission – tell the world I’m coming soon?

- I believe that Jesus has raised up a movement in the last days of earth’s history to lead men and women to Christ, to prepare them for His coming, and to lead them to obedience to His holy law.
 I want to be part of God’s last-day movement to tell the world.