

Search for Certainty

“Revelation’s 1,000 Year World Blackout” Lesson # 29 of 30

1. Revelation’s 1,000 years begins with what world-changing event?
 the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem.
 the annihilation of the righteous by the beast power.
 the coming of Jesus in the clouds of glory.
 a majority vote by the United States Senate.
2. What other events occur at this time?
 the living unsaved are destroyed by the brightness of Jesus.
 the righteous dead are resurrected and join Jesus in the air.
 the living righteous are caught up in the air to be with Jesus.
 Satan and his demonic forces are bound to this earth.
 the unsaved dead stay dead until the 1,000 years are ended.
3. During the 1,000 years the saints are in heaven with Christ.
 judge the lost people and fallen angels.
 evangelize the lost wicked people on the earth.
 observe firsthand the justice and love of God in dealing with the sin problem.
4. During the 1,000 years the wicked:
 are suffering in hell-fire.  remain dead.
 are held in limbo until they can pay their way out.
5. During the 1,000 years Satan and the forces of evil:
 are limited to this world to ponder their fate (like death-row).
 are going throughout the universe to justify their rebellion.
6. At the end of the 1,000 years:
 the New Jerusalem comes down from heaven
 the wicked are resurrected.
 the forces of evil are allowed to tempt the wicked (let loose)
 Satan deceives the wicked into believing they can take God’s city.
 fire comes down from God and devours the wicked and all evil.
7. When the 1,000 years are over:
 God rejoices that He was finally able to kill the wicked.
 God creates a new heaven and a new earth.

Why does God allow the saints 1,000 years to judge the lost?

-
- Dear Lord, I choose to allow You to rule on the throne of my heart.
 I am longing to worship God in the Holy City for all eternity.

Search for Certainty

“Revelation’s 1,000 Year World Blackout” Lesson # 29 of 30

1. Revelation’s 1,000 years begins with what world-changing event?
 the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem.
 the annihilation of the righteous by the beast power.
 the coming of Jesus in the clouds of glory.
 a majority vote by the United States Senate.
2. What other events occur at this time?
 the living unsaved are destroyed by the brightness of Jesus.
 the righteous dead are resurrected and join Jesus in the air.
 the living righteous are caught up in the air to be with Jesus.
 Satan and his demonic forces are bound to this earth.
 the unsaved dead stay dead until the 1,000 years are ended.
3. During the 1,000 years the saints
 are in heaven with Christ.
 judge the lost people and fallen angels.
 evangelize the lost wicked people on the earth.
 observe firsthand the justice and love of God in dealing with the sin problem.
4. During the 1,000 years the wicked:
 are suffering in hell-fire.  remain dead.
 are held in limbo until they can pay their way out.
5. During the 1,000 years Satan and the forces of evil:
 are limited to this world to ponder their fate (like death-row).
 are going throughout the universe to justify their rebellion.
6. At the end of the 1,000 years:
 the New Jerusalem comes down from heaven
 the wicked are resurrected.
 the forces of evil are allowed to tempt the wicked (let loose)
 Satan deceives the wicked into believing they can take God’s city.
 fire comes down from God and devours the wicked and all evil.
7. When the 1,000 years are over:
 God rejoices that He was finally able to kill the wicked.
 God creates a new heaven and a new earth.

Why does God allow the saints 1,000 years to judge the lost?

-
- Dear Lord, I choose to allow You to rule on the throne of my heart.
 I am longing to worship God in the Holy City for all eternity.